Culminating Assessment:
The student will write the front page for a newspaper, giving it an original title, including four articles depicting four separate events of the revolution. He/she will have at least three pictures on the front page. He/she will include an editorial page that includes an editorial from a patriot's perspective and one from a loyalist's perspective.