

MATCH THE ABOLITIONIST WITH THE BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION
(DRAW A LINE FROM THE NAME TO THE BIOGRAPHICAL PARAGRAPH)

Harriet Tubman

An abolitionist from the North who fought to end slavery. He came to Harper's Ferry, Virginia, to raid the U.S. Arsenal where guns were made and stored. He and his followers were going to give the guns to slaves so they could free themselves. He was caught, arrested, and hanged.

John Brown

A slave and preacher from Southampton County, he organized a group of slaves in a rebellion against their owners. After killing more than 50 whites, Turner and his men were attacked by slave owners. More than 100 slaves were killed in this largest slave rebellion in U.S. history.

Nat Turner

An escaped slave from Maryland, she returned to the South and led others to freedom. She led 19 rescue missions on the "Underground Railroad, a series of secret routes along which escaped slaves could make their way to the North and Canada where they could live free.