Culminating Assessment:

A rubric might specify that an exemplary piece of writing would:

- Accurately and clearly discuss two or three historical specifics from Reconstruction
- Connect the lives of individuals to the actions of Congress and Virginia state government
- Demonstrate evidence that the student planned, wrote, revised and edited their narrative.