Adler, David, A Picture Book of Jackie Robinson, Holiday House, 1997. RL ages 4-8. The subject's childhood, sporting accomplishments, and later endeavors are touched upon, as are the bigotry and prejudice he faced as the first African American to play in the major leagues.

Davidson, M., The Story of Jackie Robinson: Bravest Man in Baseball, Dell Yearling Biography, RL 9-12. Testimonials from family and friends, based on those in his autobiography I Never Had it Made (Putnam, 1972; o.p.), reveal that from early childhood Robinson was a giving person who was more concerned about the welfare of his friends and family than his own success.

Dennenberg, Danny, Stealing Home : The Story Of Jackie Robinson (Scholastic Biography), 1991, RL 9-12. How Jackie Robinson, the first black man to play in the white major leagues, had the courage to confront racism and fight for the rights of all black people, on and off the baseball diamond. How he became not only one of the most legendary baseball players of all time, but also a great American hero.

Dunn, Herb, Jackie Robinson Young Sports Trailblazer (Childhood of Famous Americans), Aladdin, 1999, RL 9-12. A biography emphasizing the childhood of the baseball legend who became the first African American to play Major League baseball.

Robinson, Sharon, Jackie's Nine: Jackie Robinson Values to Live By, Scholastic, 2001. RL 9-12. From the unique perspective that only a daughter could have, she guides readers through the nine heart-felt, hard-won values that helped Jackie achieve his goals.

Robinson, Sharon, Promises to Keep: How Jackie Robinson Changed America, Scholastic, 2004, RL 9-12. Sharon Robinson shares memories of her famous father in this warm loving biography of the man who broke the color barrier in baseball.
