Culminating Assessment:

Students will role-play Federalists and Anti-federalists and debate issues surrounding the ratification of the Constitution. They will focus on online primary sources from letters and documents of the period. Before engaging in the debate students will be required to create broadsides and/or prepare written arguments supporting their positions.