Letter Prompt

Name __________________________________

Pretend that you are living in Virginia in 1869. Write to a friend and tell him or her what changes are occurring in your state. Be sure to tell your friend about the political changes and who is trying to help your state rebuild.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________