

THE SEPTEMBER 11 DIGITAL ARCHIVE

SAVING THE HISTORIES OF SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

STORIES

Tell your story and read the tales of others En [Español]

E - MAIL

Contribute and read e-mail

STILL IMAGES

Submit and view photos and art

MOVING IMAGES

Contribute and view videos, animations, and digital creations

AUDIO

Listen to the voices and experiences of 9/11

DOCUMENTS

Read fliers, reports, interviews, and other materials

GUIDE TO WEBSITES

A portal to websites and online resources

ABOUT THIS SITE

Contact us, contributor & visitor information, partners

9/11 FAQs

Frequently Asked Questions about the September 11 attacks

View a Site Map for the Archive

Please note that this website is no longer updated regularly. Click here for more information.

The September 11 Digital Archive is pleased to announce that it has partnered with the Library of Congress to ensure the long-term preservation of its collections. To mark the occasion a day-long symposium entitled September 11 as History: Collecting Today for Tomorrow was hosted at the Library on September 10, 2003. Click here for more information about the symposium. Click here for more information about the Archive's historic partnership with the Library of Congress.

The September 11 Digital Archive is pleased to announce its collaboration with the American Red Cross Museum to document the personal histories of Red Cross employees, volunteers, and those involved in the humanitarian efforts in New York, Western Pennsylvania, and Northern Virginia. Click here to tell your story.

Help the Smithsonian document this historic event by sharing your September 11 experience. Submissions will be permanently archived in the September 11 Digital Archive in conjunction with the National Museum of American History's exhibition, "September 11: Bearing Witness to History" which is now on a national tour. Click here to tell your story. Visitors to the exhibit were given the opportunity to record their thoughts and memories of the attacks. Click here to see the results.

The September 11 Digital Archive was funded by a major grant from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation and organized by the American Social History Project/Center for Media and Learning at the City University of New York Graduate Center and the Center for History and New Media at George Mason University.

Copyrights for materials in the archive are retained by the original creators.
All else © 2002-2004 Center for History and New Media / American Social History Project