

Virginia Gazette
(Parks), Williamsburg,
From Friday, October 15, to Friday, October 22, 1736.

Williamsburg, October 22, 1736. RAN away, about the middle of August last, from Roy's Warehouse, in Caroline County, Two new Negro men, of a middle Stature; one of them of a yellow Complexion, with a Scar on the Top of his Head. The other a black Fellow; and they took with them several Linen Cloths, and Cotton Frocks, without Sleeves, which they had when I bought them. Whoever takes up the said Slaves and brings them to the above-mentioned Warehouse, shall have Two Pistoles Reward, besides what the Law directs, paid by Peyton Smith.

Williamsburg, October 22, 1736.
RAN away, about the middle of August last, from Roy's Warehouse, in Caroline County, Two new Negro Men, of a middle Stature; one of them of a yellow Complexion, with a Scar on the Top of his Head. The other a black Fellow; and they took with them several Linen Cloths, and Cotton Frocks, without Sleeves, which they had when I bought them. Whoever takes up the said Slaves, and brings them to the above-mentioned Warehouse, shall have Two Pistoles Reward, besides what the Law directs, paid by Peyton Smith.

Reprint: Windley, vol. 1, p. 1.

Virginia Gazette
(Parks), Williamsburg ,
From August 26 to September 2, 1737.

August 24, 1737. LAST Friday was Se'nnight, a Negroe Woman, belonging to Mr. Clayborn Gouge, at Clayborn's Ferry, in New Kent County, either ran away, or was convey'd away by Water: She is of a low Stature, well set, Grey headed, a Virginian born, and speaks good English. Whoever will bring her to her said Master, shall have a Pistole Reward, besides what the Law allows: And any Person that will prove who convey'd her away, shall have Five Pounds Reward, paid by Clayborn Gouge.

August 24, 1737.
*L*AST Friday was Se'nnight, a Negroe Woman, belonging to Mr. Clayborn Gouge, at Clayborn's Ferry, in New-Kent County, either ran away, or was convey'd away by Water: She is of a low Stature, well set, Grey-headed, a Virginian born, and speaks good English. Whoever will bring her to her said Master, shall have a Pistole Reward, besides what the Law allows: And any Person that will prove who convey'd her away, shall have Five Pounds Reward, paid by Clayborne Gouge.

Students can also use the following web address to access hundreds of ads for runaway Virginia slaves

<http://etext.lib.virginia.edu/subjects/runaways/1730s.html>