

Determine what you see and what questions you might ask to get the big picture.

Describe what you see.

Who do you see?

What is missing?

Source?

...Predict what you will see next→

What new things do you see?
What is still missing?

...Make a hypothesis about why this person is on the ground. Explain your clues.

What new things do you see?

Who might the people at the top of the cartoon represent?

What are the people doing? Describe their mood.

What questions should you ask to get closer to the meaning?

Given what you know about My Lai, is the behavior of the people normal?

What is the message from the people's signs? Why this message?

What do you think is meant by the title of the cartoon?

What is the author's purpose in drawing this cartoon? Who might he be criticizing?