TeacherServe from the National Humanities Center

June 20, 2005

Essays by leading scholars offering:
- content overviews
- discussion guidance
- bibliographies
- online resources
- primary sources

"Getting Back to You"
Your questions submitted to leading scholars

NEW Web Site!
"Teacher Professional Development Program" from the National Humanities Center

An Interactive Curriculum Enrichment Service for Teachers

Divining America:
Religion and the National Culture

- 17th & 18th Centuries
- 19th Century
- 20th Century

Essays include:
- Native American Religion in Early America
- Puritanism and Predestination
- Religion in the Civil War: The Northern Side
- African American Religion in the 19th Century
- Islam in America: From African Slaves to Malcolm X
- Religion in Post-World War II America

Nature Transformed:
The Environment in American History

- Native Americans & the Land
- Wilderness & American Identity
- The Use of the Land

Essays include:
- The Columbian Exchange
- Indian Removal
- Buffalo Tales
- The Puritan Origins of the American West
- The Challenge of the Arid West
- Rachel Carson and the Awakening of Environmental Consciousness
- History with Fire in Its Eye
- The Civil War: An Environmental View
- Roads, Highways, and Ecosystems

Divining America is made possible by a grant from the Lilly Endowment.

Nature Transformed is made possible by a grant from the Arthur Vining Davis Foundations.