The major purpose of this home page is to encourage the use of the World Wide Web as a tool for learning and teaching and to provide some help for K-12 classroom teachers in locating and using the resources of the Internet in the classroom.

SELECT FROM THE MENU CHOICES BELOW

- New location of History/Social Studies for K-12 Teachers
- Special Announcements

All of the pages in the History/Social Studies site that were posted on the Cox server have been relocated to the new Comcast destination. Best to bookmark the Main Menu at the new site.

CONCORD REVIEW

Please do not send requests for me to do research for you! See the Search Tools in the Research and Critical Thinking page, and Research-It!, a one-stop reference desk, Xplore Reference or Wired Source: Reference Desk. I have also found John December’s site -- Welcome to the Top of the Web -- to be an excellent starting point for research. You can also click on the Britannica logo below to open a new browser window for a search.
