Attachment 3
Civil Rights

The Greensboro Sit-In
Four black students from the North Carolina Agricultural and Technical College in Greensboro sat down and ordered lunch at a “whites only” Woolworth’s counter. The clerk refused to serve them but the four men remained in their seats all day. This act sparked a boycott by blacks at stores where they were refused service.

http://www.gfsnet.org/msweb/sixties/lunchcounterarmfeb1960.htm