Directions: As you listen to the story of the Lewis and Clark Expedition and view the images before you, create a journal entry describing the scene. In some cases you will be asked to write it from a particular perspective while on others you will be able to choose the perspective. All journals should be written as if you were part of the expedition.

1. Expedition encountering the Ariraka:

2. Encounter with the Teton Sioux:

3. Building the winter camp:

4. York and the Native Americans:

5. Spring and Hunting:

6. The Corps and the Expandable Boat:

7. Encountering the Shoshones:

8. The Grizzly Bear:

9. Encounter with the Blackfeet: