

Moving Here

200 years of migration to England

Explore photos, recordings and documents, research your family history and even add the story of how you came to England.

Search the site

home | about this site | news | stories | the gallery | migration histories | tracing your roots Tues 21 June
| search

Search our catalogue

Resources

Moving Here Partners

Browse by Topic

Aliens Act

Tips for Teachers

Related Websites

Link to us

ICT training manual on how to use Moving Here

Multimart game

Exhibition loan

Text too small?

Site Highlights

Jewish nurse

Baby Anita Hapkin (child of Don Hapkin and Beatrice Aaronson) and her nurse. The Aaronson family came to England from Polotsk, Belorussia

Go to catalogue item

Migration histories

Learn more about migration to England over the last 200 years Go

Tracing your roots

Find out how to begin your search for your family history Go

Stories

Read stories
Tell us your story

The gallery

View gallery
Send an e-postcard

contact us | help | site map

copyright | privacy

