

© Miss Lizzie Bowne.

THE VOLUNTEER

YANKEE DOODLE

OF '61.

A Humorous Ballad.

Words & Music by

Louis Selle.

SONG. ★

MARCHE DE SALON ★

NEW-YORK.

Published by HORACE WATERS, 481 Broadway.

Boston, O. DITSON & C^o, 277 Washington St.

Stadtpöle, So.

Entered according to Act of Congress A 1861, by E.A. Daggell, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

THE VOLUNTEER.
YANKEE DOODLE OF 61.

Marziale.

LOUIS SELLE.

mf

1. Yan-kee doodle comes to town Walking on his
2. Yan-kee doodle marches on Till the foes he'll
3. Vict'ry gained he takes his ease At his country

ten.

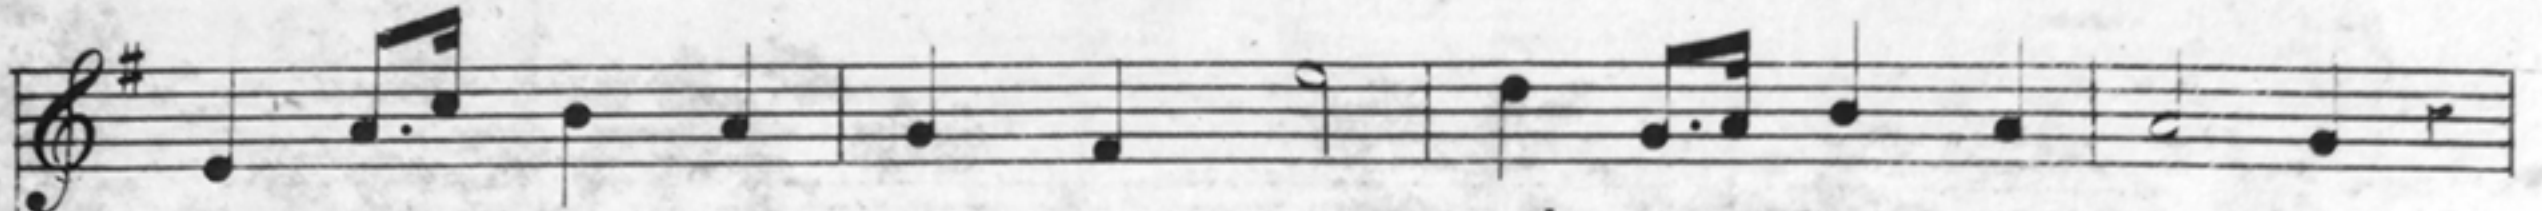

feet sir! Shouldered gun and soldiers gown Yan-kee can't be beat' sir!
 meet sir! Shoots at least a dozen down Yan-kee can't be beat' sir!
 seat sir! Following the arts of peace Yan-kee can't be beat' sir!

ten.

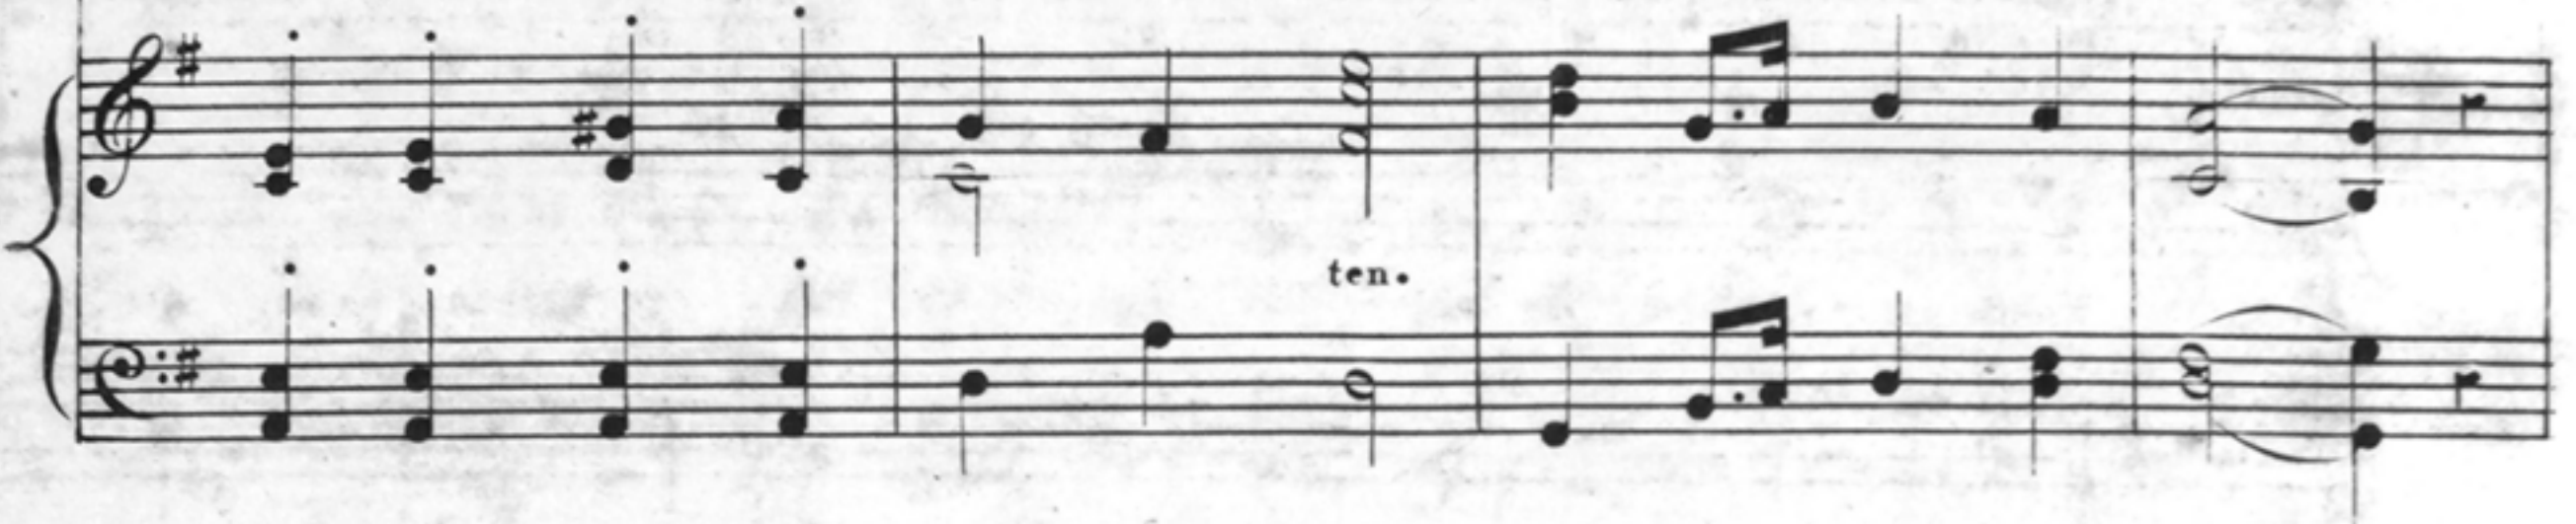

f In his bosom burns a love For his glorious country
 For the stars and stripes he'll fight For the con - sti - tu - tion
 Plen - ty yields his na - tive soil Faithful to his la - bor;

f

ten.

Sparkling like the stars a bove, Ay! much less it wont be.
Put the en - e - my to flight, End the revo - lu - tion.
And the Lord re - wards his toil, Grants him ev - ry fa - vor.

Yan - kee doodle keep it up; Yan - kee doodle dan - dy
Yan - kee doodle keep it up; Yan - kee doodle dan - dy
Yan - kee doodle keep it up; Yan - kee doodle dan - dy

Plant your bayonet on the top And wi' the gun be handy!
Plant your bayonet on the top And wi' the gun be handy!
Plant your corn, and reap your crop And wi' the plough be handy!

Soprano. f Yan-kee doodle comes to town, Walking on his feet, sir!

Alto. f Yan-kee doodle marches on Till the foes he'll meet, sir!

Tenore. f Vict-ry gained, he takes his ease At his country seat, sir!

Bass. f

ten.

Shouldered gun and soldiers gown, Yankee cant be beat' sir!

Shoots at least a do-zen down, Yankee cant be beat' sir!

Fol-low-ing the arts of peace, Yankee cant be beat' sir!

v v tr